Obituary for “The CarlaStarla Inspires Bobb”

With deep reflection and gratitude, we honor the life and legacy of The CarlaStarla Inspires—a radiant woman whose life embodied motivation, empowerment, and unwavering light to all who encountered her message, her smile shining brilliantly, a beacon of warmth and joy that could brighten even the darkest moments.

Above all else,

The CarlaStarla Inspires’s proudest role in life was being a mother. Her children were her greatest achievement, her light, and her driving force. Everything she built, believed in, and poured herself into was deeply rooted in her love for them.

The CarlaStarla Inspire was born on Sunday morning, October 24, 1971, at 9:47 a.m. in Morristown, New Jersey, and was proudly raised at 32 1/2 Madison Street, where the foundation of her strength, resilience, and compassion first took root. From her early years, she showed remarkable determination and brilliance, including early achievements such as successfully mastering and beating Tetris and Dr. Mario, reflecting her focus, patience, and sharp mind.

Born from passion, resilience, and a desire to uplift others, The CarlaStarla Inspires was more than a name—she was a movement. She stood as a beacon for those seeking encouragement, confidence, and purpose. Through her words, her actions, and her undeniable spirit, she touched lives in ways that will not be forgotten.

A devoted woman of faith,

The CarlaStarla Inspires was affiliated with the Chosen Generation Ministries lead by Pastor Darrin Monroe and Pastor Lawren Monroe. Her faith was a guiding force in her life, shaping her compassion, strength, and dedication to others.

The CarlaStarla Inspires deeply loved her family and was a strong advocate for togetherness. She not only preached unity but actively lived it, creating and maintaining the family group chat, “The Antoine Clan,” so loved ones could stay connected, supported, and encouraged. She also promoted weekly weekend video calls, believing that consistent connection was essential to maintaining strong family bonds.

The CarlaStarla Inspires was the Founder and CEO of Starla Enterprises LLC, a renowned Life Coach rooted in the Christian faith, and the author and creator of the “Imma Be Alright” Journal, which inspired many to embrace healing, hope, and personal growth.

The CarlaStarla Inspires passed away on Saturday, April 18th, 2026, leaving behind a legacy of inspiration, strength, and love that will continue to live on through all who were touched by her life.

Throughout her journey, she championed authenticity, strength, and growth. She reminded people to rise above adversity, to believe in themselves even in uncertain moments, and to find beauty in their own unique path. Her voice carried wisdom, warmth, and truth—leaving a lasting imprint on hearts near and far.

Though this chapter has come to a close, her legacy continues to live on in every person she inspired, every life she shifted, and every dream she helped ignite. Her impact remains—quietly powerful, deeply rooted, and forever present.

Survived By

The CarlaStarla Inspires is lovingly remembered by her mother, Junie Bobb, and preceded in death by her father, Charles Bobb. She leaves behind her beloved children: Arnisa “STARNisa” Hunter, Kwadaire “STARKwaKwa” Bobb, Sean “SeanieSTAR” Lindsey, and Jaguar STAR (deceased).

She is also survived by her siblings, Kenno Noel and Luchria Noel; her cherished nieces and nephews, O’neek Noel, Princess-Ivana Noel, Ovie Noel, and Skai Killiebrew; and her loving aunts, Maureen Thom, Rosemarie Antoine, and Virginia Godfrey.

In addition, she is remembered by her cousins, friends, and a global community whose lives were forever touched by her message of strength, purpose, and inspiration.
